- (a) a right to call for delivery or a right to make delivery at a specified price and within a specified time, of a specified number of relevant shares or a specified amount of relevant debentures; or
- (b) a right, as he/ she may elect, to call for delivery or to make delivery at a specified price and within a specified time, of a specified number of relevant shares or a specified amount of relevant debentures.

Explanation: For the purposes of this clause, “relevant shares” and “relevant debentures” mean shares and debentures of the company in which the concerned person is a Whole-time Director or other Key Managerial Personnel or shares and debentures of the subsidiary companies.

10. Trading Window

i. The trading window shall be closed during the time the information referred to in sub clause (ii) below becomes generally available.

ii. The Trading Window shall be inter-alia closed:

- (a) Seven days prior to Board meeting for declaration of quarterly and half-yearly financial results and seven days prior to board meeting in case of annual financial results;
- (b) Seven days prior to Board meeting for declaration of interim dividend and seven days prior to Board meeting for declaration of final dividend;
- (c) Seven days prior to Board meeting for change in capital structure like issue of securities by way of public/right/bonus, buy-back etc;
- (d) Seven days prior to the Board Meeting held to approve any mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, de-listings, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions;
- (e) For such period and for any such other material event (in accordance with the listing agreement) as may be deemed fit by the Compliance Officer;

However if the circumstances so warrants the time for closing the window may be increased or decreased with the approval of Compliance Officer and Chairman & Managing Director.

iii. The trading window shall be opened 48 (forty eight) hours after information referred to in sub-clause (ii) above becomes generally available.

iv. All Designated Employees and their immediate relatives shall conduct all their trading in the securities of the company only in a valid trading window and shall not trade in company's securities during the periods when trading window is closed, as referred to in clause ii. or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

v. The trading window restrictions shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the company.

vi. In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed.

11. Pre-clearance of Trades

a. All Designated Employees and their immediate relatives, who intend to trade in the securities of the company involving the following should pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-trading procedure as described hereunder:

- more than 25,000 Securities of the Company, or
- a consideration price exceeding Rs. 10,00,000/- for the Securities of the Company, or
- a volume of Securities exceeding 1% of total shareholding or voting rights in the Company, or
- sale of Securities of the Company before expiry of the holding period prescribed under sub-clause (h) below,

b. An application shall be made in Form 'PC-I' to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Designated Employees or their immediate relatives intends to trade in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company in this behalf. Pre-Clearance Approval Letter shall be made in Form 'PC-II'.

c. All Designated Employees and their immediate relatives shall execute their order in respect of securities of the company within seven trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given. If the order is not executed within the aforementioned specified period, the Designated Employee must pre-clear the transaction again.

d. The Designated Employee shall file within 4 (four) days of execution of pre-cleared transaction, the details of such transaction to the Compliance Officers.

In case the Designated Employee or his/ her immediate relative decides not to execute the trade after securing pre-clearance, he/ she shall inform the Compliance Officer of such decision along with reasons thereof immediately but not later than 11 (eleven) days from the date of the Pre-clearance Approval Letter.

e. No Designated Employee or his/ her immediate relative shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade when the trading window is closed or if he/ she are in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

- f. Prior to approving any trades, the compliance officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- g. It shall be the responsibility of Designated Employees to ensure compliance of sub-clauses (a) to (d) above in case of their immediate relatives also.
- h. All Designated Employees who buy or sell any number of shares of the company shall not execute a contra trade i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. The Compliance Officer may grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the regulations.
- i. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

12. Trading Plans

- a. An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- b. Such trading plan shall:
 - (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- c. The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the Regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.
- d. The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan. Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.
